- (iii) Where the consultant has to incur expenditure on travel to and stay at a place away from the headquarters of the Commission, the Commission shall reimburse the cost of travel by an appropriate class and authorize payment of Daily Allowance which shall be notified on case to case basis separately by the Commission in addition to fee and other charges payable under these regulations for such number of days as the Commission may consider appropriate.

(iv) The fee and other charges payable to individual consultants under these regulations shall also be payable to former and retired Government servants, Advisers, PSU Officials if appointed as individual consultants.

(b) Institutional/ Corporate Consultants : In the case of an institutional/corporate consultant the Fee shall be fixed based on their financial bid which shall be subject to negotiations.

(c) Professional Adviser : They may be engaged as consultant on payment of such fee as may be considered appropriate after mutual discussion/negotiation between both the parties based on the nature of assignment, time period and the professional expertise sought and offered and shall be inclusive of the taxes to be individually paid by them to the concerned Government agencies as per prevailing laws. Income tax as per prevailing laws shall however be deducted at source by the Commission.

5. Appointment of Institutional/Corporate Consultant : (1) The Commission, on being satisfied that there is a need for availing consultancy services which, in its opinion, may be more appropriately provided by a firm, or a company or an association or body of persons, the Chairperson shall constitute the CEC comprising the Secretary as its Chairman, Internal Financial Advisor and an officer or consultant in the Commission having knowledge in the area of work for which the consultancy services are to be obtained and, if considered necessary, an external expert, as may be nominated by the Chairperson as the members.

(2) The CEC shall prepare the terms of reference indicating the scope of the work, various deliverables, milestones and the schedule of payments linked to achievement of each milestone and obtain approval of the TOR from the Chairperson.

(3) The CEC, shall also decide the weightage to be allocated to each of the parameters/criteria given under SCHEDULE-II for the purpose of technical evaluation of bids, and obtain the approval of the Chairperson for the weightage proposed.

(4) After finalizing the weightages under clause (3), the Secretariat of the Commission shall invite single stage bids, containing technical and financial proposals in separate sealed envelopes, through publication of notice in at least one national newspaper and also on the Commission's website giving, as far as possible, a notice of not less than three weeks:

Provided that in matters of urgency, the period of notice may be reduced to less than three weeks but shall not be less than two weeks, as may be decided with the approval of the Chairperson.

(5) The CEC shall evaluate the bids through 'Combined-Quality-Cum-Cost-Based System' based on the pre-determined weightages allocated to each of the parameters:

Provided that the CEC shall not proceed with evaluation of bids, unless at least two valid bids have been received:

Provided further that the condition of two valid bids may be relaxed with the prior approval of the Chairperson in case the adequate number of bids are not received.

(6) For being eligible to open its Price Bid, the bidder must meet the minimum qualifying marks in the Technical evaluation fixed by the Commission for the case.

(7) After the technical evaluation is completed the Commission shall inform those Consultants whose proposals did not meet the minimum qualifying mark or were considered non-responsive to the terms of reference, and their financial proposals will be returned unopened after completing the selection process. The Commission shall have the right of distribution of marks on the basis of nature and requirement of the assignment. Simultaneously, those Consultants who have secured the minimum qualifying marks shall be informed about the date and time for opening the financial proposals, giving sufficient time for the bidders to be present at the opening should they so desire.

(8) The financial proposals of the pre-qualified Consultants will be opened by the committee in the presence of bidders or their representatives whose bids are shortlisted for financial evaluation. The proposed prices shall be read aloud and recorded in minutes of the proceedings.

(9) The Secretary will cause a review of the financial proposals to be done. The cost will be converted to a single currency using uniform selling (exchange) rates. The proposals with lowest cost will be given a financial score of 100 and other proposals given financial scores that are inversely proportional to their prices.

(10) Evaluation of financial and technical scores : The total score shall be obtained by the weighting the technical and financial scores and adding them and the bidder with highest total score shall be called by the Commission for further negotiations, if required. On successful negotiations, and after approval of the Chairperson the successful bidder shall be invited by the Commission to enter into a contract within the prescribed time limit. The weight for the financial score shall be as prescribed by the Commission in each case taking into account the complexity of the assignment and the relative importance of quality. However, the weight will never exceed 0.3 for the financial score in any case.

- (11) The Commission may reject any or all proposals if they are found to be unresponsive or unsuitable either because they represent major deficiencies in complying with the terms of reference or they involve cost substantively higher than the original estimate.
- (12) Notwithstanding anything contained in this regulation, in matters of urgent nature and involving financial commitment not likely to exceed Rupees Fifteen Lakh for the whole assignment, the Commission may avail consultancy services of a corporate consultant on the basis of single sourcing. Single source selection may also be resorted to by the Commission in appropriate cases where it represents a clear advantage because the tasks represent a natural or logical continuation of the previous work carried out by the Consultant or where only one firm is qualified or has experience for the assignment.

6. Appointment of Individual Consultants : (1) The Commission, on being satisfied that there is a need for availing consultancy services which in its opinion can be more efficiently performed by an individual, having qualification and experience and expertise considered essential for an assignment may decide to engage an individual consultant.

- (2) The Commission shall call for applications through publication of notice in at least one national news paper and on the Commission's website giving, as far as possible, a period of atleast three to four weeks for submission of applications which can not be reduced less than two weeks under any circumstances. The Commission shall also indicate the likely fee and the approximate period of engagement. The exact fee and the period shall however be finalised after the completion of the selection process and as agreed upon with the selected candidate. Before publishing the notice, the Secretary of the Commission shall identify the qualification and experience requirements keeping in view the relevant requirements of the assignment and take approval of the Chairman.
- (3) Individual consultants may be selected on the basis of their qualifications, experience and expertise for the assignment and the performance in the personal interview to be conducted for the purpose.
- (4) For conducting the personal interview of the applicants, a committee, headed by the Chairman himself, shall be constituted by the Chairman which shall comprise of the Secretary of the Commission as Member Secretary and any other Member(s) as deemed fit shall be nominated by the Chairman.
- (5) They may be selected on the basis of references or from amongst those who approach the Commission or are approached directly by the Commission. Their suitability shall be judged only on the basis of academic background, experience and expertise for the assignment and performance in the personal interview. Knowledge of local conditions, administrative system and working in government organization can also be given due weightage in appropriate cases
- (6) The candidate selected by the Committee shall be engaged as individual consultant who shall have to sign the agreement with the Commission before taking up the assignment.
- (7) Provided that the period of initial appointment of a consultant shall not normally exceed three years;

Provided further that period of appointment may be extended further based on performance subject to the condition that the maximum period of continuous appointment of a consultant in no case shall exceed five years;

7. Appointment of Staff Consultant : (i) The Commission, after having decided to engage a staff Consultant, shall invite applications on tenure basis, by publishing a notice in the National Dailies and on the Commission's Website, and by giving, as far as possible a period of three weeks for inviting application by the interested persons. In case of urgency this period can be reduced but not less than two weeks. The Commission shall also have the option to select the consultants by conducting campus interviews at reputed Institutes related to Power Sector conducting courses on regulatory issues like National Power Training Institute at Faridabad and other locations and similar other institutes at its discretion.

(ii) Before publishing the notice, the Secretary of the Commission shall identify the qualification and experience requirements keeping in view the relevant provisions of the Commission's Regulations governing the recruitment against regular posts.

(iii) The staff consultant may be engaged based on qualification, field of specialisation and length of experience ranging from 3 years or more and offered a consolidated fee as described under Regulation 4(a) which can also be equivalent to basic pay plus dearness allowance and other allowances as deemed fit in respect of the post against which the staff consultant is being engaged. Annual increment in the consolidated fee shall be decided on the annual performance and output of the concerned incumbent and shall be decided on case to case basis by the Commission.
